TOUR SCHEDULE

August 1st 2010

9:30am Hotel/Apartment pick-up at by our guide and driver. 2 hour drive to Erdaoguan village which is situated next to the Great Wall. Walk around the old watch towers and explore the old village. Meet and talk with local villagers (with help from our guide).

Later on, continue hiking along the small mountain paths to a famous Great Wall Pass called "Zhuangdaokou" where you will take a short break and enjoy a picnic lunch on the Great Wall. Continue hiking on the wild Great Wall and mountains for 2- 2.5 hours and enjoy taking pictures on the way.

3:00 pm, arrive at camping site inside a park called "Little West Lake". The unique feature at this park is not only the lake, but the Great Wall which dips into the water from one side and comes out from the other.

The camping site sits in the 400 year old Ming Chestnut Garden and next to the Great Wall. In this Chestnut Garden, many old chestnut trees were planted by soldiers during the Ming Dynasty (1368-1644), hence the name.

Later on, you have free time. There are various activities on offer which include fishing, exploring the mountain valley, or a boat ride on the lake to see where the Great Wall dips into the water.

Campfire Dinner Party

Enjoy your night sleeping in the 400-year old Ming Chestnut Garden with the Great Wall just seconds away.
